Editorial. Tonight we welcome back Victorian of the Year Les Twentyman to our club. We have a couple of weeks extra at La Piazza Allegra whilst the London Tavern continues renovations. Our terrific Vocational site visit at Caulfield General Medical Centre featured a geriatrician, continence and ulcers. It was great to see our bladder scanner being used. Tonight we present our annual Unsung Hero Award as we celebrate Rotary's Vocational Month.

District Conference

Each year, our every Rotary District has a conference inviting members from all of its clubs. It is usually several days long in March and features extraordinary guest speakers from around the globe.

This year's Conference is in Canberra from March 9-11 2007.

Top speakers including Dr Andy Thomas, astronaut, the revered neurosurgeon, Professor Jeffrey Rosenfeld, concert pianist Alan Kogosowski, Commonwealth Games gold medallist and Aussie Supermum Kerryn McCann and Shelterbox inventor, Tom Henderson will inspire and inform.

For more information, see our club's On-to-conference Chairman, Marc Fookes. Let's have our club's biggest conference attendance yet in the nation's capital!

District Assembly is held in one day May, close to Melbourne. It is a must for new members to learn about what Rotary does.

Unsung Hero Award

Previous winners include Albert Barough, Ada Short, Beryl Craig and Phyllis Harris.

The award is presented by the Rotary Club of Glen Eira for voluntary work in the local community, being largely unrecognised, working without wanting any payment or reward, and helping to contribute to a more caring society.

Phyllis Harris is our 2005 Unsung Hero

At home with Frank Jacobs

Our club's favourite painter Frank Jacobs has been an apology for the last few weeks.

Frank is at home recuperating (hopefully not up ladders painting!!) whilst doctors are trying to work through what to do with him.

Knowing Frank, we're sure a stubbie or two of VB wouldn't do any harm.

This is not by Frank Jacobs

Now Frank, we all want you to get well soon so that we can finally be handed a winning raffle ticket. It's not the same without you.
