Well done to Joe & Sue Aarons (and their many helpers) for a great night last Tuesday at the Caulfield Park Bowling Club. A great night was had by all, with some great bowling by our novice bowlers.

Don't forget next week is at the Royal South Yarra Tennis Club with Colin Rubenstein. Payment must be made tonight to ensure you get a seat. The Business Breakfast and District Conference are coming up on us soon, as are our Dutch visitors, plus a trip to Ogaki for some of our members. It really is a busy time for Rotary!

Thankyou to our volunteers

Thank you to club members and friends of the club who will be hosting our incoming Group Study Exchange Team from the Netherlands in March.

Many thanks to Larry Blode, Yoshiko Stynes, Geoff Oscar and District Foundation Chairman Chris Don for hosting the team.

The Vocational Day (coordinated by Ian Marks) on Wednesday 7th March enables Peter Stokkel (an archaeologist) to meet with an Aboriginal elder, Marloes Buurman (an online editor) to tour the Herald Sun, Mariska Werenstikn to visit Shelford and Caulfield Grammar, and for Esther Claus (a fashion designer) to spend a day with a photographer. All these vocational days have been organised by our own members. If you are interested in joining some of the social activities with the team from 4th to 9th March, please contact Adrian Nelson.

Rotary etiquette: Your questions answered

Q: If I miss a Glen Eira meeting, can I go somewhere else? DN

A: Dear DN, Clubs and members are measured on their attendance at Rotary. If you cannot make the weekly Rotary Club of Glen Eira meeting, there are plenty of options. Our club is part of the Beachside Cluster in our District. Other clubs in our Cluster meet at the following:
