20th Celebrations Night: 10 November 2007

Our Club celebrated its rich 20 year anniversary, The highlight was the awarding of Paul Harris Fellows to our esteemed members: Ian Marks and Adrian Nelson (see front cover). We were delighted that their wives Patsy and Louise were together with us on this night. Another highlight was the fellowship generated on the night.

With us, were many of our past presidents (see above). Our district governor John Davis and PDG Ian Knight (our DG at charter) enjoyed the night with us. The singers were especially appreciated. Special thanks to the committee who put the night together, ably led by Ian Marks and supported by Kurt Langfelder, Geoff Oscar, Jan Hill & I. Happy Birthday.

Rotarians are encouraged to use THE GEN as a means of sharing information about Rotary, coming events and news. Your item can be emailed to the editor: david.heuberger@anz.com Preferred deadline Friday 5pm.

This week's Bulletin features a small taste of our proud history. We also note our early days with an Ogaki connection. Please note in the center our members Veronika Martens and PP David Nettelbeck (dark hair?). Thank you one and all for allowing our Club to celebrate its history And we look forward to continued service above self.

TONIGHT: We welcome Steve Nicholls from the Seeing Eye Dogs Australia (SEDA). We also especially welcome the cutest of all our guests, SAGE the puppy dog in training. Tonight we will witness SAGE in two guises. When in harness she will behave as a guide for the seeing impaired. When out of harness she will become a gorgeous playful puppy. Running around amongst us. IMPORTANT : Please do NOT pat, touch or interfere with SAGE when she's in harness learning her special mission in life.

Twenty years and ready set go for the next 20 years, in peace and harmony. But this is NOT the Editor.

Club Annual General Meeting: 27 November 2007

Please note: notice is hereby given that our Club will conduct its AGM on the above date. In accordance with practice, nominations will be called for the following positions: President Elect (2008—2009) and President Nominee (2009—2010). Please see the Secretary, Jan Hill for the necessary applications.

An announcement will be made at tonight's meetings for any further details as required. We will also conduct the AGM and please note our AGM will be a part of the meeting of Tuesday next week. Our regular meeting will still be run as normal.
