

The Gen

15 July 2008

Tonight:

Jan Hill

Services of a Physio

(survey results suggest we want to hear more from our club members, so tonight we have our expert in all things physio, time to be tuned up)(

Dear Rotarians

The Gen is a little ill again, sorry, the Editor's PC will be new very soon, in the mean time we will have a condensed Bulletin. My apologies, THE EDITOR!

Tonight's duties:

Chairman: Sam Binstock

Toast to Australia: John Strong

Toast to Club: Max Sherlock

Cashier: Kurt Langfelder

Mark your diaries:

- AG visit Iven Mackay 22 July
- DG visit Jim Studebaker August
- GG (past) Peter Hollingworth 26 August

Changes to Gen for the Year

Our survey has suggested that we will seek some more Club member's news and information.

As such to kick off this enterprise let's start with the Editor. In due course I will send out some basic questions etc and see this area of the Bulletin blossom. Some fun questions some serious questions.

David (Editor) (nice tie wearer)

- Who picks your ties?
- I do, and I like my choices
- Favourite Rotary moment?
- Donating money to worthy causes (and the Sgt session)
- Did you watch Big Brother (your views?)
- Absolutely. Shame it's gone.
- Did you enjoy being President?
- It was fun mostly, glad Club has moved on better things.
- Why did you join Rotary?
- To have fun and do some good.
- What is Rotary's great challenge?
- Membership growth so we can continue doing good.

The Rotary Clubs of Glen Eira, Elsternwick and Caulfield invite you to a fundraiser supporting Calvary Healthcare Bethlehem

The first annual
Swing with Glamour
Dinner Dance

Hosted by Dr Sally Cockburn
(aka Dr Feelgood)

Swing to the beat of the
Rathdowne Street Big Band

Performances from
Aria Award winning divas
Judi Connelli & Suzanne Johnston,
with Peter Hurley on piano

Saturday 9th August 2008

7pm to 11.30pm
Glen Eira Town Hall

Corner of Glen Eira & Hawthorn Roads, Caulfield

Dinner, drinks & entertainment

$60 per person. Call Julie Gray on 9595 3257 for bookings

LEXUS of Brighton

Bendigo Bank

Other news:

- Board Meeting tonight
- Breakfast Committee (next week)

Editor's PC:

I am getting a nbew PC so hopefully Bulletin will return shortly all healthy and safe and sound. Sorry for any inconvenience.