About Youth Connect

Youth Connect works with the community to provide all young people with the skills and knowledge to support them to manage a successful pathway through secondary education, further learning and employment. Engaging with industry, Youth Connect builds mutually beneficial relationships which support employers to attract and retain young people.

Youth Connect staff work in partnership with a wide range of local organisations and individuals to deliver a number of programmes and services that assist: young people, parents, employers and industry, schools and other education providers and the community. Youth Connect is a not-for-profit, community focused organisation that has offered assistance to young people in the south eastern suburbs of Melbourne for over fifteen years.

Danny Schwarz is the CEO of Youth Connect previously working in the health field in various capacities. Locally he is a former student of McKinnon High.

Vision: A community where school to work pathways and career choices for all young people are equally valued and respected Mission: Youth Connect works with the community to provide all young people with the skills and knowledge to support them to manage a successful pathway through secondary education, further learning and employment. Engaging with industry, Youth Connect builds mutually beneficial relationships which support employers to attract and retain young people.

Values: Choice Youth Connect believes all young people should have access to information and support in order to make informed career choices regarding their education, training and employment options. Equity: Youth Connect embraces the diversity of young people, education, industry and the broader community by providing equitable programs and support. Integrity: Youth Connect works with the community to build and establish honest and empathetic relationships to achieve positive outcomes.

Rotarians are encouraged to use THE GEN as a means of sharing information about Rotary coming events and news. Your item can be emailed to heubergd@anz.com Preferred deadline Friday 5pm..

Last Week's meeting:

The new President won the raffle. Max confiscated money as Sgt. John Leske was reminded of his Sam calling and will forever be reminded of this. Our guest speaker was Margaret Howden who spoke about step families in Australia. She painted an interesting landscape of all the trials and tribulations and good issues of families that combine after previous relationships. Members were fascinated and Margaret has started the new Rotary Year with our usual high standard speaker quality. Margaret spoke from personal experience, as well as professional experience. President Sam requested a strong turnout for the coming Club Forum. Members who wish to attend a Board Meeting as a guest are more than welcome to do so, please ask Secretary Ian Marks.
