Rotary Club Glen Eira presents

TONIGHT

Inspector Paul Ross

Police Initiatives in Glen Eira

Ladies Night was a fun night and will certainly down in the Club's great nights.

Another great night is upon us

Professor Miles Prince

A Night Not to be missed

Partners and friends night

Last Week and This Week

This Week: Inspector Paul Ross

Inspector Paul Ross has been with Victoria Police for 25 years. He has worked at both metropolitan and country locations in general duties positions and as a Detective at Broadmeadows and Bendigo. He arrived at Glen Eira in December 2009 as the Police Service Area Manager. He is a keen bushwalker who enjoys travel and tinkering with cars. He lives in Blackburn with his wife and two adult children.

Last Week: The Ladies of Rotary Club Glen Eira

It was a great night with thanks to all our ladies, the night was a huge success. President Joyce Binstock showed us why Sam is so capable, she ran like clockwork. Raffles worked via the overseas returning Yoshiko Stynes (and Jo Jo Mishima was also a welcome guest). Toasts to the best Club by John Leske's better half Rena. Rena said she loved Rotary as she had a bridge game or the house to herself. Evelyn Fabian was exemplary in toasting our country Australia. Sheryl Furman explained her incredible works in giving to the needy in South Africa. Obviously civic duty is key with Larry and Sheryl. Patsy Marks spoke about her passion of teaching Scottish dancing. Basically knowing right from left and some basic counting (to 8 is an advantage) and a good attitude and it is a breeze (especially for kilt wearers).

Our very special guest speaker is Louise Nelson described the red cross view of selling donated clothes and items. Using the methods of Mary Queen of Shops, they use retail principles to raise far greater revenue than just hoping people buy in a poorly presented shop. Louise volunteers at Elsternwick and this shop is the leading red cross shop. Louise and Adrian also believe in community service. Jan Hill chaired the evening.

And the highlight was the Sgt At Arms extraordinaire, Coryl Asher. Coryl's insight spelt doom for the mere males present (and some females too!) Funnily enough Geoff (husband) got the most roasted. Coryl let him off easily as she noted. Outstanding again Coyl and everything ticked off nicely and on time. A Sgt by example and deed.

Thanks to our cahiers Enid Oscar and Marilyn Faiman. It all balanced. Thank you also to the ladies of London Tavern as they served delicious lamb and fish. If we may also quietly thank one male (only one it is true) but to Geoff Oscar, thank you for arranging this excellent evening.

In Other Club News:

Yoshiko Stynes starred on Channel 10's the Circle cooking show. Also Yoshiko's daughter, Yumi was given a starring role in the newspapers magazine section. We particularly support Yoshiko as recently she had a loss in the family. Keith Faiman had a big seven O birthday—congratulations Keith.

Rotarians are encouraged to use THE GEN as a means of sharing information about Rotary coming events and news. Your item can be emailed to heubergd@anz.com Preferred deadline Friday 5pm..

We will all be supplied with the bright safety jackets to wear on site. I will issue written instructions after four of us attend the briefing with Camberwell on Wednesday evening. Please do not just put this message aside - we need input from everyone. This is a huge chance to enhance our reputation as a club that fights above our weight! and give us an annual project equal to (or exceeding) our BP breakfast. We have agreed with Camberwell that we are to be rewarded on a per volunteer session worked basis, and the funds will come into our books to be put to our selected charities.

District Assembly: The Club was well represented in District Assembly held at Melbourne Grammar School. Members particularly were interested in hearing from different presentations of Rotary like Membership; Treasury; Presidents; Vocation; New Generations; Publicity and Marketing.
