DG Weekly Message

Vocational Service is the basis of our entry to Rotary membership. October is Vocational Service Month, a time when Rotarians are asked to focus on Vocational Service and an excellent time to look at Vocational Service activities in your club. Many clubs do just that.

Vocational Service is basic to our organisation. The use of the classification principal assures that each club has among its members a cross section of a communities business and professional population. When we join Rotary, our Rotary dinner badge gives our "classification." When we do a make- up, we introduce ourselves proudly such as "Iven Mackay, Rotary Club of Toorak, classification Maps & Travel Guides."

Rotary's philosophy is to encourage and foster high ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying by each Rotarian of their occupation as an opportunity to serve. These values are expressed in the 4-way test.

Paul Harris wrote "each Rotarian is a connecting link between the idealism of Rotary and their trade or profession."

Hands on Vocational Service in the community is the best possible public image Rotary can give to the community. The side benefit is its ability to attract new members. RIP Ray Klinginsmith this year affirms that Rotary's greatest strength lies in its grass roots network of more than 34,000 Clubs. He emphasises the opportunity Rotarians have in BUILDING COMMUNITIES BRIDGING CONTINENTS with use of their vocational skills. Upholding high ethical standards and maintaining supportive professional relationships are goals toward which Rotarians should strive.

On Sunday, 3rd October, Vocational District Director Bob Slater, along with his Committee and a number of facilitators, ran a successful Vocational Service Forum at Glen Erin winery in Lancefield, followed by a delightful lunch. Thank you to the Clubs, Club Presidents, Club Vocational Service Chairs and Rotarians that attended. Well done to RC of Brighton Beach who did an excellent job (once again) of hosting this day.

Let's generate some Vocational Service activity in our Clubs this month!

Have a great week in Rotary,

DG Iven

Rotary honours our Youth.

Last month, one of our candidates, Melina Karina, for Youth of the year, was too ill to attend.

Yesterday Club President, Jan Hill and Director of New Generations, Jeff Nirens went to visit Melina at the Royal Children's to present her a Presidential Award for courage and determination along with a $100 cheque.

She is accompanied by her mother and her sister.
