Last Weeks Meeting

Hi all and welcome to another edition of The Gen. Last week we had another exciting night, kicked off with a choice of Ham Steak, Fish or Chicken Schnitzel (all with Chips and Salad).

President Jan was not feeling too well, and battled gallantly throughout the night until she had to leave early. Get well Jan.

After the usual announcements, we were introduced to this years Ambassadorial Scholar Sharmila Acharya, from Calgary Canada. PP Adrian Nelson is her mentor during her stay here in Melbourne and we hope that he will continue to bring her back to our club for a visit.

This weeks speaker was Gary Fink from godmother.com.au. Gary is a professional in the world of Cloud Computing, a new and exciting area of computing as it affects us all. It was refreshing to have a speaker that communicated well and (Cont page 3)

This weeks Speaker— Dr William (Bill) Keys Anderson.

To write a brief summary of Dr Andersons achievements would be not only an insult to the Doctor, but also to the institutes that he has worked for and the countless people that he has affected.

However, Dr Anderson could best be described, through his resume, as a man consumed by the need to (cont page 2) research and write.

A Doctor of Philosophy, a Master of Education, and a Bachelor of Arts (First Class Honours) are just 3 of the 6 titles that has been bestowed upon him,

He is a recipient of many awards including the Gandel Yad Vashem Scholarship – Israel in 2010.

Bill has lectured on the History of the Holocaust, Scotland and Ireland.

A Judge for Examination Setting Panel Member for the Victorian Certificate of Education, Competition Judge, Fellowship of Australian Writers, National Literary Awards, University of Melbourne Non-Fiction Award, and Genealogical Society of Victoria Scottish Ancestry Group, Short Story Judge (sole judge). Topic: Scottish Immigration to Australia are amongst his other achievements.

Finally, if that was not enough, Bill has authored so many papers and books that I could not count them all.

Tonight he will be speaking on the topic “Writing wrongs – some thoughts on writing” explained the technicalities in simplistic terms so that we could all understand it. Further it was great that he did not spend much time spruiking his business but spent time in educating us. The Gen bulletin editor did much to contain his excitement but occasionally let the moment getting the better of himself and even answered one question from the members.
