Anshul Vijay nearly kills past president

Artists Impression of the would be killer

Last week was Garry Fabians first week at the helm and it was a drama filled evening that left everyone literally gasping for breath.

The first drama was that the club meeting finished at 7:50pm, 10 minutes early. Club members were in shock as Garry said good night.

“We didn’t know what was going on” said an anonymous member. “We are so used to getting home after Australia’s Got Talent” and “What’s my wife going to say? She likes it quiet on Tuesday nights”

However, our guest speaker Anshul Vijay was not short on words as he made good on his promise to make us laugh.

Anshul gave us his take on life's little moments and how to turn its mysteries into humor.

So good was he at making us laugh that Jan Hill first turned red and then purple on her way to blue as she was laughing so much.

As her tears were pouring down her face I was thinking that I didn’t recall seeing that expression last week after she clean swept all those awards.

Glen Eira Rotarians are into baby clothes for East Timor.

Some time last week our Rotarians and their partners got their hands dirty and their backs sore as they packed up 12 boxes of baby clothes for the mothers of East Timor.
