Take a bow Kazuyo and China

Kaz addressing the club

It was a night of Japanese culture as we were treated by Kazuyo Preston and China on their experience of being a youth exchange student.

China was first to address the club, showing us images of where she lives in Japan. She discussed her life and culture in Japan and was amazed at how Australian students do not write as much notes at school as the Japanese counterparts.

China was also quick to point out that she does not like Vegemite.

Kazuyo 'Kaz' Preston, is the wife of President Elect Mark Preston.

Kaz first arrived in Australia many years ago as a youth exchange student.

Kaz explained the four D's of youth exchange. No Dating, No Drinking, No Drugs No Disappearing.

It appears that the one of the D's was ignored as she started to see Mark. (dating - ed)

These days Kaz is actively involved in her passion of world peace. With other Japanese woman she started Japanese for Peace

Each year they hold The Japanese for Peace concert with Rod Quantoc as MC.

THE ROTARY FOUR WAY TEST

Of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the TRUTH?

Highly interesting visit by ten of our members and a couple of friends to the A.B.C. building at Southbank last Thursday.

We were shown the workings of our daily 8c of a most efficient organisation. Our guide Michael Taft, a volunteer, who had worked for over thirty years at the A.B.C. was most knowledgeable, instructive, entertaining and gave us an insight into the National Broadcaster. We watched Jon Faine doing his morning broadcast, we saw the television studio from which many shows emanate, e.g. the news, weather, Stateline, Insiders etc. and several other radio studios as well. Sixteen radio stations broadcast from here at various times of the day and night. These broadcasts include Radio National, Triple J and the overseas network which targets mainly our near Asian and Pacific countries. These broadcasts go out in nine different languages. The tour concluded after an hour and a half
